

Konstantin De Winter is the eclectic producer and songwriter binding behind the moniker of Calfskin.

Hailing from Belgium, he set out to create a deep and cinematic blend of electro pop, inspired by artists the likes of Depeche Mode, New Order or OMD.

His sound is all about personal and lush vocals, dense synth layers and punchy beats; keeping the formula simple and direct, yet wide open and diverse.

His latest single "The Cross" precedes his full length album "Historyrepeating". The record is particularly introspective; exploring themes such as Konstantin's new-found fatherhood and the way life simply unfolds before our very eyes.
